Preamble

The Company uses the following guiding principles in decision-making and uses the principles when undertaking strategic and business planning.

- (a) That as the peak body representing Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services that deliver primary health care to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their communities in Western Australia, we will take a leadership role in forming partnerships with government and non-government agencies and other organisations for the purpose of advancing the health and well-being of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and their communities in Western Australia.
- (b) That Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people's health includes the physical well-being of an individual and the social, emotional and cultural well-being of the whole community in which each individual is able to achieve their full potential as a human being thereby bringing about the total well-being of their community. It is a whole of life view which includes the cyclical concept of life-death-life.
- (c) That Aboriginal Community Control is about community participation, engagement, responsibility and accountability to the community that constitute the client base of the services provided, the Member base and the broader Aboriginal community in which our Member Services and AHCWA work.
- (d) That Aboriginal Community Control is central to achieving and maintaining cultural well-being and is therefore essential to the philosophy and operations of Aboriginal health care services.
- (e) That understanding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and incorporating cultural understanding and awareness into policy development and implementation is necessary if improved health outcomes are to be achieved.
- (f) That Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples constitute an unacceptable proportion of disadvantaged people in Australian society and that this is due to past and present discriminatory policies and laws that impact upon the health, social and economic well-being of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
- (g) That improvement in health outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their communities will be advanced through equitable health access and funding models.
- (h) That equity in health will be advanced through a genuine commitment on the part of all Australians to redress the history of oppression and inequity that continues to impact negatively upon Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
- (i) That as the peak body representing Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services providing comprehensive primary health care to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their communities we will:
 - advocate for and seek to influence policy and legislation that advances the health and well-being of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their communities in Western Australia specifically and in Australia generally; and
 - also advocate for, contribute to and apply principles of Australian and international standards for best practice, evidence-based frameworks in every area of operations including all levels of governance and service delivery.

This preamble is included for guidance and context purposes only and does not form part of this Constitution.

- (a) There are a number of reasons why a Member's membership will stop. For instance, if a Member:
 - (i) resigns from membership (see Rule 5.2);
 - (ii) automatically stops being a Member (see Rule 5.3); or
 - (iii) is expelled from membership (see Rules 5.4 and 5.5).
- (b) The Directors may adopt such other policies and procedures relating to the disciplining, suspension and expulsion of Members as they so determine from time to time provided they are permitted by law and consistent with the requirements set out in this Rule 5.
- (c) Where a Member ceases to be a Member in accordance with the law or this Constitution, that Member's name must be removed from the Register of Members.
- (d) Upon the removal of a Member's name from the Register of Members:
 - (i) the Member will forfeit all rights and privileges attached to their membership and all rights which that Member may have against the company arising out of the membership; and
 - (ii) the company will have no liability to such Member in respect of that Member's removal from the Register of Members.

A Member may resign from membership of the company at any time by providing written notice to the company (supported by a signed copy of the Minutes or Resolution of the Directors or Management Committee of the Member evidencing the decision to resign from membership) addressed to the Chairperson or Secretary. Unless the notice provides otherwise, the resignation takes effect from the date the notice is received.

5.3 Automatic Stopping of Membership

A Member's membership will automatically stop if the Member:

- (a) is subject to an insolvency event for a continuous period of 60 days or more, is dissolved or wound up;

- (b) fails to pay any required membership fee in accordance with Rule 4.7 within two months after the date on which that membership fee becomes due or such later time as the Directors may determine;

- (d) no longer complies with the membership requirements described at Rule 4.2 as determined by a Special Resolution of Directors.

5.4 Disciplining, Suspension and Expulsion of Members

- (a) This Rule 5.4 describes what needs to happen when considering whether to discipline a Member. In summary, the process involves:
 - (i) putting the Member in question on notice and giving the opportunity to provide information;
 - (ii) passing a Directors' Resolution to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline that Member; and
 - (iii) if the decision is to expel a Member, inform that Member of the right to appeal the decision under Rule 5.5.
- (b) Provided the steps set out in this Rule 5.4 are followed, the Directors may resolve to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline a Member if that Member or any of its Representatives:
 - (i) has refused or failed to comply with the provisions of this Constitution or any company code of conduct;
 - (ii) acts in a way that, in the opinion of the Directors, is, or could be, prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the company.

(Member Disciplinary Resolution)
- (c) The Directors must give the Member in question at least 14 days prior notice of the date that the Directors will consider the Member Disciplinary Resolution. This notice must be in writing and inform the Member:
 - (i) that the Directors are to consider warning, suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplinary the Member (as the case may be);
 - (ii) of the reasons why the Directors are considering taking the determined action;
 - (iii) of the right for the Member to give the Directors, either orally or in writing, any explanation or defence relevant to the proposed disciplinary action;
 - (iv) of the date, place and time of the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered; and
 - (v) of the right for the Member to attend the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered but not to be present during any Director deliberations or the putting of or voting on the resolution unless the Directors resolve otherwise.
- (d) Where a Director is connected with a Member subject to a Member Disciplinary Resolution by virtue of being a Representative, Director, officer, employee or volunteer of that Member, that Director is not entitled to vote on the relevant Member Disciplinary Resolution.
- (e) All Member Disciplinary Resolutions are to be passed by an Ordinary Resolution of Directors and, subject to Rule 5.5 relating to appealing a resolution to expel a Member, such decision of the Directors is final.

- (f) Directors must notify the relevant Member in writing about the Directors' decision within 14 days after the date a Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed, but failure to do so does not invalidate the decision.
- (g) Subject to a successful appeal under Rule 5.5, the Member Disciplinary Resolution takes effect at the time and date the resolution was passed.

5.5 Right of Appeal

- (a) Where a resolution that a Member no longer complies with the membership criteria is passed in accordance with Rule 5.3(d) or where a resolution to expel a Member is passed in accordance with Rule 5.4(b), the company must give that Member written notice of the decision (Cessation Notice). The Cessation Notice must be sent within 14 days of the relevant resolution.
- (b) The Member who is the subject of the Cessation Notice may, by notice in writing to the Chairperson, request that a resolution to confirm or reject the Directors' resolution be put to the Members in a General Meeting. Such notice must be received by the company within 14 days of the date of the Cessation Notice.
- (c) If the Appeal Notice is received by the company within the timeframe required under Rule 5.5(b), the Directors must ensure (within 30 business days of receipt of the Notice) a resolution to confirm or reject the Directors' resolution is considered by the Members at a General Meeting called in accordance with Rule 6.2 to consider this resolution only.
- (d) The Member that is subject to the Cessation Notice must be given the opportunity to provide a written statement and to make representations at the General Meeting in relation to the resolution of the Directors. Any written statement given by the Member must be distributed to all Members prior to the General Meeting, provided the notice is reasonable in length and is not defamatory or if circulated would result in the breach of law.
- (e) If the Ordinary Members resolve to:
 - (i) confirm the resolution of the Directors that is related to the Cessation Notice, the Member must be removed from the Register of Members from the date of the resolution of the Directors described at Rule 5.5(a); or
 - (ii) reject the resolution of the Directors that is related to the Cessation Notice the Member must not be removed from the Register of Members and no period of cessation will be noted.
- (f) If an Appeal Notice is not received by the Chairperson within the required timeframe, then:
 - (i) the Directors are not required to ensure that a resolution to confirm or reject the Directors' resolution is considered by the Members at a General Meeting; and
 - (ii) the Member ceases to be a Member from the date of the resolution in accordance with Rule 5.3(d) or 5.4(b), as appropriate.
- (g) A Member who has been expelled may reapply for membership in accordance with Rule 4.2 provided at least six months has expired since that Member ceased being a Member.

6 General Meetings

6.1 Introduction

- (a) For as long as the company is registered as a charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission or its successor, and for as long as the law permits or requires, the Directors:
 - (i) unless the Corporations Act otherwise requires a meeting of Members for a particular resolution to be passed, may determine whether or not to hold meetings of Members including Annual General Meetings;

 - (iii) must ensure that if the company does hold a meeting of Members, it does so in accordance with this Constitution and the Corporations Act despite the fact that the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with Members' meetings may not be directly applicable to the company.
- (b) If there is any inconsistency between the Corporations Act and this Constitution with respect to the calling and holding of Members' meetings then, to the extent permitted by law, the provisions of the Constitution will prevail.

6.2 Calling of General Meetings and the Putting of Resolutions

- (a) A General Meeting of Members may be initiated by:
 - (i) a resolution of Directors;
 - (ii) subject to Rule 6.2(b), the Ordinary Members in accordance with the Corporations Act; or Ordinary Members calling a General Meeting must be from at least three separate Regions. For the avoidance of doubt, all other provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with the way Members may call meetings still apply.

- (c) If an Ordinary Member wants a resolution to be considered by the Members at a General Meeting, then, subject to Rule 6.2(d), a Notice of that Resolution must be given to the company in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (d) For as long as the number of Members is 60 or less, the number of Ordinary Members required to provide a Notice of a Resolution under Rule 6.2(c), is two or 10% (whichever is greater) despite this exceeding the 5% threshold prescribed under the Corporations Act.

6.3 Notice of General Meetings

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with consent to short notice, if a General Meeting of Members (including any Annual General Meeting) is called under Rule 6.2 at least 21 days' notice of that meeting must be given to each person who is at the date of the notice:

- (a) No business may be transacted at any General Meeting, except the election of a Chair (if required) and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business and the quorum remains present throughout the meeting.
- (b) The quorum for a General Meeting of Members is 12 Ordinary Members or a majority of current Ordinary Members (whichever number is the lowest) present by at least one Representative in person and entitled under these Rules to vote at a General Meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, Associate Members are not counted towards quorum.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for a General Meeting:
 - (i) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, Ordinary Members, the meeting must be dissolved; or
 - (ii) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, the Directors or the court, the meeting must be adjourned to the same time of the same day in the next week, and to the same place, unless the Directors specify otherwise.
- (d) At a meeting adjourned under Rule 6.4(c)(ii), the meeting is to proceed and the number of Ordinary Members present at the meeting is deemed to be the quorum for that meeting.
- (e) In determining whether a quorum is present pursuant to Rule 6.4(b) or 6.4(c)(ii), if a Member has appointed more than one Representative and both are present, only one Representative must be counted.

6.5 Chair of General Meetings

- (a) Subject to Rule 6.5(b), the Chairperson must preside as Chair at each General Meeting.
- (b) If at a General Meeting:
 - (i) there is no Chairperson;
 - (ii) the Chairperson is absent from the meeting (or part of the meeting); or
 - (iii) the Chairperson is present but is prevented from acting or not willing to act as Chair of the meeting or of part of the meeting,the Deputy Chairperson (if there is one) must preside as Chair of that meeting or part of it until such time as the Chairperson joins the General Meeting or can resume the role of Chair (as applicable).
- (c) Subject to Rules 6.5(a) and 6.5(b), if at a General Meeting:
 - (i) there is no Chairperson and no Deputy Chairperson;
 - (ii) the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson are absent from the meeting (or part of the meeting); or the Ordinary Members present may elect a person present to be Chair of that meeting or part of it until such time as the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson joins the General Meeting or can resume the role of Chair (as applicable).

6.6 Conduct of and Participation in General Meetings

- (a) The Chair of a General Meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in the opinion of the Chair necessary or desirable for:
 - (i) proper and orderly debate or discussion; and
 - (ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes.
- (b) The Chair of a General Meeting at which a quorum is present must if so directed by the Ordinary Members present with a two-thirds majority of votes, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place. However, no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (c) Notice of an adjournment and the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting must be given to all persons who were entitled to receive notice of the meeting the subject of adjournment.

6.7 Decisions at General Meetings

- (a) Except in the case of any resolution which under this Constitution or as a matter of law requires a special resolution, questions arising at a General Meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Ordinary Members present at the meeting and who are entitled to vote. Such decision is then for all purposes a decision of the Members.
- (b) If there is an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution at a meeting of Members the Chair may exercise a second or casting vote in addition to any vote the Chair may exercise as a Representative of a Member.
- (c) Unless a poll is demanded, a resolution put to the vote of a General Meeting must be decided on a show of preference of Members, with each Member Representative present and entitled to vote indicating a preference by a means appropriate to that Member and that is readily interpreted and understood by the Chair (Show of Preference).
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt:
 - (i) if two Representatives for the same Member are in attendance at a General Meeting, each Representative may exercise one vote on a Show of Preference and a poll; and
 - (ii) if only one Representative of a Member is in attendance at a General Meeting, that Representative may exercise two votes on a Show of Preference and a poll.
- (e) A poll may be demanded before a vote being decided by a Show of Preference is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the Show of Preference:
 - (i) by the Chair of the meeting;
 - (ii) by at least five Members present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution; or
 - (iii) for as long as the number of Members is 60 or less, three or 10% of Member present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution (whichever is greater) despite this exceeding the 5% threshold prescribed under the Corporations Act.
- (f) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chair on the result of a vote on a Show of Preference is decisive of the outcome of that resolution. Such declaration does not need to refer to the number or proportion of votes for or against the resolution.
